God Loves You! (Object Lesson)

Recently I sat in on a class where the teacher used this object lesson to teach the boys and girls that God made them and loves them more than anything else He made:

"God made everything in the world, but of all the things in the world that God made, the thing that is in this box is what He loves the most."

Teacher holds up a box. (It looks nicer decorated.) One by one take each student aside and have them look into the box as you open it to reveal their face being reflected back by a mirror attached to the bottom.
